

What is God Calling Us to Next?

TCl Survey

Make Your Voice Heard

What is the essence of Colonial Church? What do we do really well? Where could we improve? Share your thoughts on these and other important questions by taking the Transforming Church Insight survey, or TCl.

TCl is an integral part of ReForming, a process Colonial is undertaking to discover what God is calling us to next. This instrument will help us measure what matters to each of us, see our strengths and weaknesses and focus on how to best use all that we are to serve God and His people. It provides an opportunity for all our church members and regular attenders to participate in this process.

TCl is primarily an online survey. It will be available beginning Wednesday, September 13, and closes Wednesday, October 11. If you need help accessing the survey, beginning Sunday, September 17, volunteers will be available Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings to assist you. If you wish, you can take the survey on a dedicated computer in the church office during business hours. If an online survey simply won't work for you, paper surveys with pre-addressed envelopes will be available. Your responses, whether online or on paper, will be strictly confidential.

This is important work, and it takes time. The survey will take about 30 minutes to complete. It includes over 100 statements to rate on an "agree-disagree" scale. Five are open-ended, with space given for you to write your answer. Most of these questions are standard, offering an opportunity to learn how Colonial is similar to and different from other churches across the country. Other questions are unique to our congregation. A summary of the results will be shared with the entire congregation.

WE NEED YOU! Your participation is crucial to getting the most out of this survey. And we need your prayers – for this survey and for all of ReForming. God is at work at Colonial Church. Hallelujah!
